Churchill's kin to speak at Parrish tonight

Author, speaker and granddaughter of Winston Churchill, Celia Sandys will present a lecture entitled "The Power of Words: The Inspirational Leadership of Winston Churchill," 7 p.m. at Miami Hamilton's Parrish Auditorium.

Sandys traveled often with her grandfather and later retraced his travels as part of the PBS Documentary "Chasing Churchill." She has published five books on various aspects of his life. The latest is "We Shall Not Fail - The Inspiring Leadership of Winston Churchill," which describes the principles of leadership that enabled him to lead his country and the rest of the free world to overwhelming victory against Nazi Germany and its allies in World War II.

Sponsored by the Harry T. Wilks Leadership Institute and the American Veterans Center, this lecture is free and open to the public. RICHARD O JONES
