Constituting “The People”:
Law & Legacies of Slavery

Annette Gordon-Reed

Annette Gordon-Reed is the Carol K. Pforzheimer Professor at the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study, the Charles Warren Professor of American Legal History at Harvard Law School, a Professor of History at Harvard University, and the 2014-2015 Harmsworth Visiting Professor of American History at Queen’s College, Oxford University. She received the 2008 National Book Award and the 2009 Pulitzer Prize in History for The Hemingses of Monticello: An American Family (2008).

Wednesday April 1, 2015 – 4:00 PM
The Harry T. Wilks Theater, Armstrong Student Center
Reception to follow in Pavilion A-B, Armstrong Student Center

The Charles R. and Elizabeth C. Wilson Lecture in History in association with the A. Andrew Olson Lecture Series in Early American History in Honor of Andrew Cayton.
Presented by the Miami University History Association, in partnership with the Department of History