

They Can Live in the Desert but Nowhere Else:

EXPLAINING THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18 7:30 PM

THE WILKS AUDITORIUM, RM. ASC-1056
ARMSTRONG CENTER

RONALD GRIGOR SUNY

Director of the Eisenberg Institute for Historical Studies
University of Michigan

Drawing on archival documents and eyewitness accounts, Suny provides a chronicle of a cataclysm that set a tragic pattern for a century of genocide and crimes against humanity.

COMMEMORATION OF THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE

For more information about these events, and other sponsored and co-sponsored programs visit the Center for American and World Cultures website at MiamiOH.edu/cawc, or contact us at cawcnews@MiamiOH.edu.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR AMERICAN AND WORLD CULTURES

Sponsored by the Center for American and World Cultures and the Department of History Holocaust Education Fund with support from the Department of Comparative Religion, the Department of English, the Department of German, Russian, East Asian and Middle Eastern Languages and Cultures, the Department of Political Science, the Film Studies Program, the Ford Family Initiative on Spiritual Meaning and Purpose, the Havighurst Center, the Hillel Foundation at Miami University, the Interfaith Center, the Grayson Kirk Fund of the International Studies Program, the Latin American Studies Program, and the Miami Family Fund

Please, contact the Office of Disability Resources, 529-1541, at least one week prior to the event to request accommodations such as real time captioning or sign language interpreters.