On Junior Scholars Move-In Day (Sunday June 24th) we will have a dedicated member of our IT support team available in your residence hall from 10:00AM to 3:00PM to assist you with any hardware, software or Internet questions that may arise.

Computing and Printing

The most convenient location for computing and printing services for Junior Scholars will be King Library, which is across the street from the Junior Scholars' residence in Wells Hall. King Library summer hours:

Monday – Thursday	7:30 a.m. – 9:00 p.m.
Friday	7:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Saturday	1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Sunday	1:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Visit the library online: <http://www.lib.muohio.edu/>

Computers:

King library has a variety of Windows-based and Macintosh computers available for you to use, all of which have a variety of popular software applications and are networked to the campus backbone and the Internet. Please be advised that these computers are not available for gaming.

If you have your own computer you are encouraged to bring it with you. If you need software to facilitate your connectivity, you may download it from <https://software.muohio.edu/>.

If you are bringing a portable computer we strongly recommend a laptop lock, which are available at the Miami University Bookstore.

Printing

Miami offers printing services across campus in the libraries, technology centers and via Miami uPrint, a service that allows you to print to over 50 network printers from your own desktop or laptop service which allows for printing from your residence hall. Printers available include laser printers and color printers. Charges for prints apply.

For Windows and MacOS setup instructions for Miami uPrint, visit <http://ithelp.muohio.edu>

You are welcome to bring your own printer. Please be advised that student-owned wireless or network-connected printers are not permitted due to possible interference with the network signal. Students are asked to connect their printer directly to their computer instead.

Wireless Network Access

Wireless network service is available in all Miami University academic buildings, residence halls and some popular outside “Green Spaces.” Your computer will need to have a wireless card and must be properly configured.

For further information on how to configure your computer and connect to MU-WIRELESS with Windows XP, Windows Vista or Mac OS X, please visit:
<http://www.lib.muohio.edu/computing/wireless>

You may also contact the IT Services Support Desk at ithelp@muohio.edu or 513.529.7900.

Once your computer is configured for MU-WIRELESS, it will show up in your available networks and connect automatically when within range of a Miami wireless access point.

While full wireless network access is recommended for students, parents may wish to connect to Miami’s limited access wireless network as a Guest on Move-In Day or on Parents’ Weekend. More information about Guest Access is available online: <https://ithelp.muohio.edu>

CAUTION: Personal wireless access points are prohibited in Miami buildings as they interfere with the MU Wireless service.

A parental consent form is enclosed; please sign and return to Junior Scholars to ensure that you may use the fitness center during the program.

A separate parental consent form is required to use the Climbing Wall. Counselors are planning a fun group climbing activity. (No experience is required!) If you think you might want to participate, please return the enclosed consent form. Completion of this form does not obligate you to participate, but you will not be able to join in without a signed consent form on file, so it's a great idea to have it ready, just in case!

More information about Miami's Recreational Sports facilities, including summer hours, may be found at <http://www.rec.muohio.edu/>

Musical Scholars

If you are a musician and you would like to bring your instrument to campus, you are welcome to take advantage of our practice rooms in the Center for Performing Arts (23 on the Campus Map). The practice rooms, which are equipped with pianos, should be unlocked and available for you every day from 7:30AM to 4:30PM. How to View and Pay your Miami University Bill

Miami University utilizes an electronic billing system for notification of all student tuition, room and board, and other charges due. As such, please note that a paper invoice for the Junior Scholars Program will not be mailed to a student's home address. Instead, notification of charges owed related to the Junior Scholars Program will be sent to the participant's Miami email account when an electronic bill (eBill) is ready to view. For most participants, the invoice for the Junior Scholars Program is available and ready to view.

The available invoice will include all room charges, charges for a $25 daily student credit for meals, charges related to special meals and catering related to the program, and a tuition charge based on the number of credit hours in which a student is currently enrolled. Please note that this bill does not include any charges for textbooks, personal expenses, or printing/copying expenses. Information on how to provide students with funds for personal expenses will be explained later in this document under the heading of MUlaa.

It is important to realize that the eBill is a snapshot of a student's account as of the date the eBill was created. The billing approach that is used is much like a credit card billing statement. As such, should a student change his or her course schedule, the invoice will also change. Students should periodically check for any new eBills throughout the Junior Scholars Program in order to ensure all charges are paid prior to the completion of the program in early August.

Miami is pleased to offer an online option for easy payment of all student invoices. Our secure online service accepts payments by eCheck (electronic check), Mastercard, Discover, Diner's Club, and American Express. There will be convenience fees with credit card transactions. Please be sure to read the rates & terms pages on the CASHNet website. Student fees can also be paid by cash, check, or money order at the Payment Center, located in the Campus Avenue Building, room 101. The Payment Center will not be open on Sunday, June 24, but students may pay their bills on Monday, June 25. If preferred, students can print the eBill, remove the remittance stub, and then send it along with payment to: Miami University Payment Center, 301 S Campus Ave. Room 107, Oxford, OH 45056-3439.

Helpful instructions on how to access a student's invoice, how to share access to invoices with parents or guardians, and how to pay the invoice online can be found below. Please note, students must have already accessed their Miami email account and changed their default password prior to viewing their invoices.

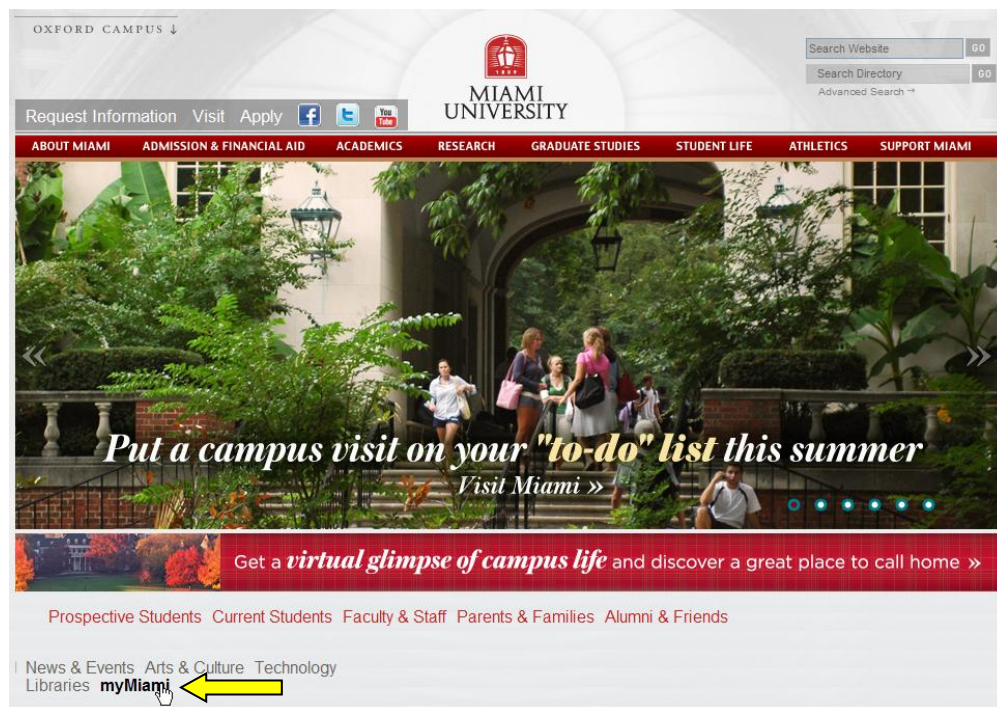

International Students:

Miami University has partnered with peerTransfer to offer an innovative way to make a bank transfer of funds to be applied towards a student's Miami invoice. Instructions on how to utilize this system can be found at <https://peertransfer.com/school/miami>.

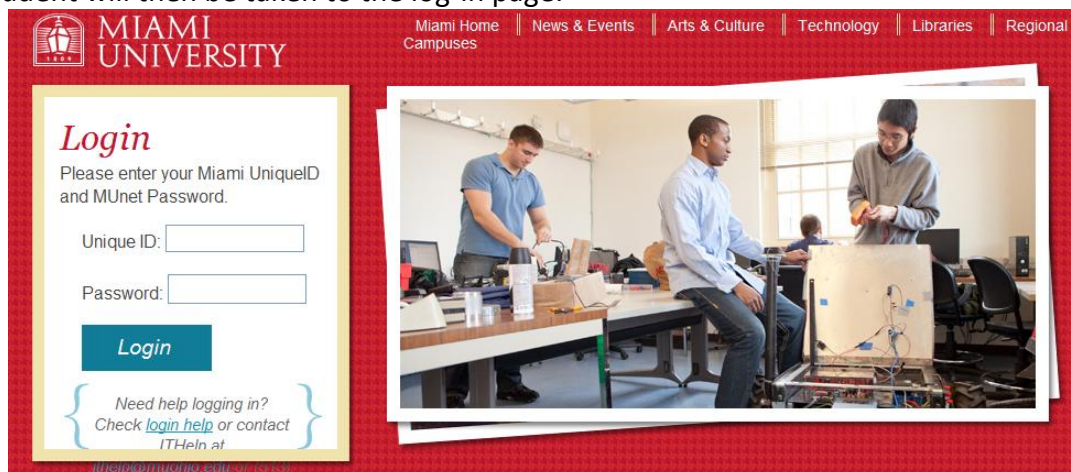

Please note that it is recommended that international students pay above and beyond the amount due on the student's invoice to account for student health insurance charges (if applicable), changes in course schedules, and other personal expenses. In previous years, other international Junior Scholars participants have made a transfer of funds that reflects a minimum of $500 in addition to the invoice total.

How to Access your eBill

Students should log-in to myMiami to view their Miami University invoice. From the Miami homepage:

The student will then be taken to the log-in page:

Once logged-in, the student will want to select Bursar eBill

MUlaa

Miami University offers students the opportunity to add money to an account which can easily be used with the swipe of their student ID at the bookstore, library (where papers can be printed), print center, laundry facilities, rec center and more. MUlaa is a debit account that is easy to manage and often preferred by students and parents. Please note that while additional monies can easily be added to a student's account throughout the Junior Scholars Program, all monies deposited to a student's MUlaa account is non-refundable and non-transferable. As such, students and parents are advised to add minimal amounts initially and throughout the program. In the past, students have found a $50 MUlaa deposit to be sufficient, if not using for their initial textbook purchase. Payments to MUlaa can be made using the online payment system described above. Information about MUlaa can be found at <http://www.hdg.muohio.edu/MiamiIDcard/MUlaa/>.

Buying Textbooks

The Miami University Bookstore is not open on Saturday or Sunday throughout the summer months. As such, students will not have the opportunity to purchase their textbooks on move-in day.

Because students sometimes feel the need to alter their course selections after the first day of classes, students are often advised to wait until after first day of courses to purchase the required materials. The bookstore is open Mondays – Thursdays from 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM and Fridays from 9:00 AM – 4:30 PM.

Textbooks can also be ordered online and are then made available for pick-up at a designated date and time. To order textbooks online, please visit <http://www.mubookstore.muohio.edu/>.
