Consultant

- 1/18-9/18 Changing Landscapes in Marijuana: What cross county listening sessions revealed
Community Partners: Deborah Neyer, Kristina Latta-Landefeld, Amy Macechko, and Charla Henderson
The purpose of this project was for 5 Butler County (Ohio) Drug-Free Community Coalitions to conduct a county-wide community assessment on marijuana attitudes and perceptions. I served as a consultant by advising the team on how to structure their focus group path and ask relevant questions to community members.
- 11/10-11/11 Go Wild with Fruits & Veggies, United States Department of Agriculture, Grand Forks Human Nutrition Research Center, Grand Forks, ND.
Principal Investigator: Dr. Lisa Jahns
The purpose of this study was to evaluate a nutrition education program that encourages children in grades 3-5 to eat more fruits and vegetables and become more physically active. The University of Minnesota Extension office is implementing this program. I served as a consultant by advising the evaluation team on valid and reliable instruments to use in the study.
- 07/09-06/11 Predictors of Dietary Behaviors Among Children Using The Theory of Planned Behavior, The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH.
Principal Investigator: Dr. Gail Kaye
The purpose of this study was to evaluate how well constructs of the theory of planned behavior predict dietary behaviors related to obesity prevention among elementary aged children. I served as a consultant by creating and validating the evaluation tools for the study.
- 06/09-12/09 The Effect of a Recessionary Economy on Food Choice: Implications for Health Education and Services, The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH.
Principal Investigator: Dr. Carla Miller
The purpose of this study was to identify dietary behaviors and grocery shopping changes of women living with children, who have experienced a financial crisis in the past year. I served as a consultant by interviewing twenty-five women in Columbus, Ohio. I also open-coded transcripts using the ATLAS software and identified reoccurring themes for the final report.
- 10/08-06/09 Overseeing the Implementation of Food Fit to Low-Income Youth, The YMCA of Central Ohio, Columbus, OH.
Principal Investigator: Becky Ciminillo
The purpose of this study was to implement and evaluate the Food Fit program to low-income youth in YMCA afterschool programs across Columbus, OH. I served as a consultant by training and overseeing dietetic interns who implemented and evaluated the program.

- 06/08-09/08 Evaluating Food Fit, a Social Cognitive Theory Based Intervention, The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH.
Principal Investigator: Dr. Gail Kaye
The purpose of this study was to implement and evaluate a social cognitive theory based, childhood overweight prevention intervention across Columbus, OH. I served as a consultant by completing the final data analysis and writing a manuscript for publication.

Curriculum Development

Food Fit*, Gail Kaye & Paul Branscum

Selected as one of eleven promising programs by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, the Centers for Disease and Control (CDC), and the CDC Foundation for the project: Early Assessment of Programs and Policies to Prevent Childhood Obesity, 2008.
