The Havighurst Center for Russian & Post-Soviet Studies offers financial assistance to Miami University students participating in study abroad programs to Russia and other post-Soviet states. Miami University students planning to enroll in a study abroad program for the summer, semester, or full academic year are eligible to apply. A faculty committee will select the recipients and determine the amount of each travel award based on the cost of the program, the student’s academic record, and/or financial need.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS
The following must be submitted to the Havighurst Center by the deadline.

- Travel Grant Application
- Transcript (copy is fine)
- A short (1 page maximum) typed statement of purpose
- Two (2) academic letters of recommendation. It is your responsibility to make sure that these letters have been received.
Return the completed application form and additional materials to the Havighurst Center by the application deadline. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
