Facts at-a-glance

Affiliation: Miami is an Ohio public university.

History: Founded in 1809, Miami's name reflects the history of the Native American tribe who once lived in the Miami Valley region of Ohio. Miami maintains strong ties with the Miami Tribe, now located in Oklahoma, and with the Myaamia Center, a cultural and research center, in Oxford.

Location: Oxford, Ohio (35 miles northwest of Cincinnati). Miami's Oxford campus encompasses 2,138 acres and includes 188 buildings.

Enrollment: (fall 2017) 17,147 undergraduates and 2,553 graduate students in Oxford. Regional campuses in Hamilton, Middletown, and West Chester enroll 5,000 students combined. About 200 students per year leave Oxford to study at Miami's Luxembourg campus for a semester or year.

Cost: First-time in-state Oxford students enrolling in fall 2018 pay $15,378 tuition and general fees, an amount frozen for four years by the Miami Tuition Promise. Since 2016, Miami's Tuition Promise freezes a cohort's tuition and fees for four years for in-state and out-of-state students (classes entering in 2016 and 2017 pay a different amount, also frozen).

New out-of-state students in fall 2018 pay $34,895 in tuition and fees, frozen for four years.

Room and board cost for incoming students in 2018 is $13,860 (weighted average, options vary) and will not rise within students' four-year experience.

Tuition at the regional campuses is among the lowest regional campus tuitions in the state.
