- 7 X.1. Upon initial appointment each bargaining unit member shall be assigned a primary 8 worksite (campus) where their teaching and service work is located and which must not
9 be changed without the consent of the bargaining unit member.
10
- 11 X.2. Bargaining unit members may, without penalty or retaliation, refuse to teach courses
12 located outside of their primary campus (not including fully online courses).
13
- 14 X.3. In the event that a bargaining unit member agrees to teach a course located outside of 15 their primary worksite, they are entitled to reimbursement for travel expenses, including 16 but not limited to mileage, parking, and tolls.
17
- 18 X.4. In the event that a bargaining unit member is required to conduct professional activities
19 other than instruction outside of their primary worksite, they are entitled to online
20 alternatives or reimbursement for travel expenses at the option of the bargaining unit
21 member.
