

MIAMI UNIVERSITY PROPOSAL TO FAM/AAUP-AFT

September 17, 2024

FACULTY EVALUATIONS

I. Annual Evaluations

1. All bargaining unit faculty members shall be reviewed on an annual basis in accordance with University, divisional and departmental policies for performance evaluations. Each Division shall make available to bargaining unit faculty members information about the review process, including timing, procedures and information they should expect to provide and receive in their annual evaluation.
2. Each Division will determine the criteria for, the manner of, and the bargaining unit faculty member's responsibilities in the evaluation process. Consistent with divisional requirements, departments may develop commonly accepted standards for evaluating categories of work of bargaining unit faculty members. Bargaining unit faculty members and the Union shall be made aware of any changes to the annual evaluation process in the fall of each academic year.
3. Each bargaining unit faculty member shall submit to their chair or program director, as appropriate, a written Annual Report of Professional Activities, as defined by their academic unit. Any bargaining unit faculty member who fails to complete an Annual Report of Professional Activities shall receive an unsatisfactory performance evaluation.
4. Annual evaluations shall set forth strengths, weaknesses, and specific recommendations for improvement. Additional assessments may be conducted upon recommendation of the bargaining unit faculty member's chair or program director, as applicable, or dean.
5. The results of the annual evaluation shall be conveyed to the bargaining unit faculty member no later than May 1. The results of the annual evaluation should include whether the bargaining unit faculty member's performance meets expectations, exceeds expectations, or is not meeting expectations, and if not meeting expectations, what areas need improvement. Each bargaining unit member will have the opportunity to respond to their evaluation in writing. The results of annual

Any tentative agreements reached between the parties on any proposals shall not become final until (1) the parties have reached final agreement on a full collective bargaining agreement, (2) the Union membership has ratified the full collective bargaining agreement and (3) the University Board of Trustees has approved the full collective bargaining agreement.

The University also reserves the right to amend or withdraw any proposal that conflicts with pending legislation, including S.B. 83 - Ohio Higher Education Enhancement Act.

evaluations shall be considered in subsequent decisions on promotion, pay, awards, benefits, and other decisions related to continued employment.

II. Teaching Evaluation Plans

1. Each department shall develop a teaching evaluation plan in accordance with University, divisional and departmental policies, procedures and practices. The plan may also address both formative and summative assessments.
2. Any formal teaching evaluation plan must be appropriate to the discipline and will require multiple sources of teaching evaluations. Any formal evaluation of teaching shall not use non-university student evaluations (e.g., RateMyProfessor evaluations, blog posts). Bargaining unit faculty members must provide multiple measures of teaching effectiveness.
3. Evaluations of bargaining unit faculty member's teaching will include student evaluations of teaching but will not rely solely on student evaluations. Bargaining unit faculty members are expected to encourage students to complete an evaluation for each course taught by the bargaining unit faculty member. ~~however, they will not be penalized on the basis~~In the event of low student evaluation response rates in a particular course negatively skew student evaluation results, the bargaining unit faculty will not be penalized.
4. In the event that a bargaining unit faculty member implements a new, experimental or innovative teaching approach in a single course, the bargaining unit faculty member may request, in writing, that those course evaluations be excluded for the purpose of promotion and/or tenure dossiers. The bargaining unit faculty member may make this request once every three years.
- 2.5. The Department of the bargaining unit faculty members may choose to use a peer evaluation as a method of formative or summative evaluation or in the dossier. Peer evaluation of teaching shall consist of the review of a bargaining unit faculty member's performance by other bargaining unit faculty members, usually in the same or similar discipline, with the purpose of assessing and improving the quality of teaching. Observational visits by peer evaluators shall be scheduled for and conducted at times and dates mutually agreed upon by the bargaining unit faculty member and the peer evaluator.

Miami University and FAM reserve the right to add to, delete from, or modify any proposal herein prior to final agreement. Any withdrawal of a proposal is without prejudice to the University. Any tentative agreements reached between the parties on any proposals shall not become final until (1) the parties have reached final agreement on a full collective bargaining agreement, (2) the Union membership has ratified the full collective bargaining agreement and (3) the University Board of Trustees has approved the full collective bargaining agreement.

The University also reserves the right to amend or withdraw any proposal that conflicts with pending legislation, including S.B. 83 - Ohio Higher Education Enhancement Act.

~~3-6~~. Teaching evaluations pursuant to the department's Teaching Evaluation Plan will be retained and considered as a part of the evaluation process for tenure, promotion, periodic career review, and merit salary increases.

III. TCPL Professional Development Plan and Evaluation

1. Each TCPL bargaining unit faculty member at the Assistant ranks shall develop and maintain a professional development plan in consultation with the department chair and with approval by the Dean, in accordance with University, divisional and departmental policies and practices. The PDP must be approved by the dean and provided to Departmental and Divisional Promotion and Tenure committees as annual reports and dossiers are evaluated. Associate TCPL faculty who wish to pursue promotion must maintain a PDP for at least two full academic years (fall and spring semesters) prior to applying for promotion. Full TCPL faculty are not required to maintain a PDP.
2. The initial PDP should be submitted in the first semester of appointment as an assistant TCPL faculty member. The PDP plan should be flexible and open to revision on an annual basis, upon the mutual agreement of the TCPL faculty member and department chair. The PDP will be tailored to the specific professional expertise of the faculty member and the needs of the curriculum, program/department, division, and students. Any significant changes shall be implemented in coordination with the department chair and subject to approval by the Dean. The PDP will be retained and considered as a part of the evaluation process for promotion, post-promotion review and merit salary increases.
3. The PDP (and any subsequent revisions) should be signed and dated by the TCPL faculty member, Department Chair, and Dean or their designee. A lack of the bargaining unit faculty member's signature will not negate the PDP.
4. Annual evaluation and promotion expectations shall be based upon the TCPL faculty member's PDP.

IV. Periodic Evaluation of Tenured Faculty

1. Faculty members with tenure shall undergo a periodic career review after every seventh year of service. The periodic career review will include, at a minimum, feedback from the faculty member's department chair and a committee of faculty colleagues holding the rank of full Professor, in accordance with university policy.

2. The periodic career review process shall support the further career development of tenured candidates as well as ensure accountability and continued robust performance from faculty after they have achieved tenure. When the review period ends in a sabbatical (or other leave), the periodic career review shall be deferred until the next academic year. A promotion shall replace a periodic career review for the period in which the promotion occurs.
3. The results of the periodic career review shall be conveyed to the faculty member. The results of the periodic career review shall be considered in subsequent decisions on promotion, pay, awards, benefits, and other decisions related to continued employment.

V. Formative Evaluations for Promotion

1. Bargaining unit faculty members in a promotable rank may request a formative promotion evaluation once per academic year, in addition to the annual evaluation described in Section I. Upon request, such evaluation shall be prepared by the department's promotion committee and chair or program director, as applicable.
2. Bargaining unit faculty members who request a formative promotion evaluation are responsible for providing cumulative information upon which the promotion committee and chair shall base their evaluation.

Miami University and FAM reserve the right to add to, delete from, or modify any proposal herein prior to final agreement. Any withdrawal of a proposal is without prejudice to the University. Any tentative agreements reached between the parties on any proposals shall not become final until (1) the parties have reached final agreement on a full collective bargaining agreement, (2) the Union membership has ratified the full collective bargaining agreement and (3) the University Board of Trustees has approved the full collective bargaining agreement.

The University also reserves the right to amend or withdraw any proposal that conflicts with pending legislation, including S.B. 83 - Ohio Higher Education Enhancement Act.
