LEAVES

A. University Holidays and Break Periods

Bargaining unit faculty members are expected to work during the contractual period of their appointment, except for days when the University is closed. In lieu of vacation, bargaining unit faculty members are not required to work during the University break periods that fall within the term of their academic-year appointment (Fall Break, Thanksgiving Break, Spring Break, Winter Break during the period of University closure). The dates on which these breaks are scheduled shall be determined by the University and set forth in the University academic calendar. Bargaining unit faculty members who choose to work on the dates when these breaks are scheduled may not use these days at any other time nor are they entitled to accrue or cash out any unused days.

B. Family and Medical Leave

The University will offer unpaid leave to eligible full-time bargaining unit faculty members with qualifying conditions in accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act and University policy. Bargaining unit faculty members must request family medical leave in writing and submit the request to the appropriate personnel office. The University must provide a medical certification form to the bargaining unit faculty member, when applicable. The medical certification must be completed by the healthcare provider and returned to the appropriate personnel office prior to approval of the leave whenever possible.

Bargaining unit faculty members must utilize their leave balances while on FMLA. If a bargaining unit faculty member does not have sufficient paid leave available for the entire period of their approved leave, they may take the balance of the leave as unpaid.

In accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act, bargaining unit faculty members who return from a family and medical leave must be restored to the position held by the employee when leave began or be restored to an equivalent position with equivalent pay and University-provided benefits and other terms and conditions of employment.

Miami University will maintain University-provided benefits for eligible employees on family or medical leave under the same terms and conditions coverage would be provided had the employee continued in employment for the duration of the leave. Retirement contributions will only be made for that portion of the family and medical leave that is paid leave.

C. Sick Leave
