Detailed information on benefits and eligibility can be found on the Total Compensation page, and information regarding retirement plans can be found on the Choosing a Plan page, both on the Office of Human Resources website. Employee Benefits & Wellness will email information regarding your university benefits once you have accepted this offer.

Additional Terms

This position is contingent upon the successful verification of the educational information provided on your resume or curriculum vitae and/or employment application. Should there be a problem with this information, you will be contacted. Otherwise, employment will proceed as outlined in this letter.

Your appointment is as a full-time coach and is an unclassified staff, annual appointment position. Your supervisor will assign the responsibilities associated with your coaching appointment and will assist you in identifying the support services available to you.

This appointment recognizes the need for elasticity in the time commitments of a coach to their professional obligations; i.e., the University recognizes that coaches experience greater demands on their time during recruiting and playing seasons and lesser demands during other periods. As a member of the Miami University coaching staff, you are expected to invest a full-time, professional effort in making your program successful, but that your time commitment may vary with those fluctuating demands. Accordingly, coaches appointed under the terms of this appointment do not accrue vacation. You are entitled to 22 non-contract days per year for personal business, vacation and recreation during the course of the year; you are to arrange for time away from your position of more than one-half day with your supervisor. You are not entitled to accrue or carry-over unused non-contract days beyond the contract year. Coaches are not entitled to cash out any unused non-contract days.

As a coach, you are required to comply with the bylaws and regulations of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Mid-American Conference (MAC) and the National Collegiate Hockey Conference (NCHC), as applicable. If you violate an NCAA, MAC or NCHC bylaw or regulation you will be subject to termination, disciplinary or corrective action. Violation of an NCAA bylaw or regulation will subject you to discipline or corrective action as set forth in the provisions of the NCAA enforcement procedures, including suspension without pay or termination of employment for significant or repetitive violations. In addition you may be terminated or disciplined for any act or omission that may give rise to a finding that the institution has violated a NCAA, MAC or NCHC bylaw or regulation.

Arrangements for summer camps and related activities at Miami University are subject to University policies; if you are interested in such arrangements, either now or in the future, please contact the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics or the Director's designee for additional information.

As a staff member in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, and in accordance with NCAA Bylaw 11.2.2 you are required to provide on an annual basis a written detailed account to the President of all athletically related income and benefits from sources outside the institution. In addition, you are required to receive advance authorization for outside employment in accordance with the University's Ethics and External Services Policy. Sources of such income shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Income from annuities;
- b. Sports camps;
- c. Housing benefits (including preferential housing arrangements);
- d. Country club memberships; e. Complimentary ticket sales;
- f. Television and radio programs;
- g. Endorsement or consultation contracts with athletics shoe, apparel or equipment manufacturers.

General Terms - As a full-time employee of Miami University, you are expected to comply with applicable rules, regulations, and procedures of Miami University, directives as promulgated by the President and official actions of the Board of Trustees, as now in effect and hereafter amended. This appointment is conditioned upon full compliance therewith.

This appointment may be terminated during its term for cause. Cause includes, but is not limited to, unethical conduct as defined in NCAA Bylaw 10.1, failure to satisfactorily perform assigned duties, violation of University rules, regulations, or policies and/or directives of the President or Board of Trustees, violation of applicable athletic regulations or professional ethics, or commission of an illegal act involving moral turpitude.

If, at any time during the term of this appointment, Charles Martin no longer serves as Miami University's head coach, then Miami University reserves the right to terminate your employment. If the University chooses to terminate your employment in such a circumstance, the University will give you sixty (60) days notice or at the University's sole option and in lieu of sixty (60) days notice, pay to you as liquidated damages and not compensation, your then current salary in equal monthly installments for a period not to exceed two (2) months. You will not be entitled to any further notice, compensation or benefits under this appointment.

This appointment may be renewed consistent with Miami University's policies.

This offer of employment is contingent upon the verification of your right to work in the United States. To satisfy this requirement, you must complete the federally-required Form I-9 on or before the first day of employment (June 9, 2025) and submit original documentation verifying your identity and work authorization. These original documents must be presented within the first three (3) business days of your employment. A list of acceptable documents is available on the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services website. This offer may be withdrawn if this requirement is not satisfied.

The Form I-9 can be started in the onboarding process and/or during the New Employee Orientation session and the documents can be presented at that session. If you do not have your documents at this orientation session, they must be presented within three (3) business days of June 9, 2025. This can be done with the Office of Human Resources in Roudebush Hall on the Oxford Campus, or by making an appointment on the Middletown Campus by calling 513-727-3388.

Miami University requires the completion of one (1) online education module that must be completed within 30 days from the date you receive the email notification with login instructions. This module will be assigned on or around June 9, 2025:

- Preventing Harassment and Discrimination: Clery Act and Title IX

It is suggested that you set aside about one (1) hour to complete this module. New employees will receive their training assignments via email with the subject line "Required New Employee Online Training Assignment - Miami University." In addition, a former employee is required to complete the training if it has been at least 365 days since the training was last completed. Should you fail to complete the training within this 30-day timeframe, you will be terminated from employment.

You will also be required to complete the Ethics Survey and External Service Disclosure on an annual basis.

If these terms are acceptable to you, please indicate your acceptance.

Welcome to the Miami University community! We hope that you will find professional and personal success at Miami. We are excited about having you join us and contributing to the future of this great university.

Sincerely,
