Relocation

The President's 2017 Tax Act signed on 3 December 2017 suspended the exclusion from taxable income for recipients of employer-paid moving expenses for taxable years 2018 through 2025, except for certain active-duty members of the armed forces. As a result, IRS regulations mandate that moving expenses reimbursed or paid on behalf of employees constitute taxable income.

The value of this reimbursement is $3,000.00 and is included as a taxable benefit on the next paycheck after Payroll receives notification so that appropriate taxes can be withheld. These taxes include federal, state, local, and Medicare, if applicable. This amount is also included on the W-2 Wage and Tax Statement at year-end.

Additional Terms

This position is contingent upon the successful verification of the educational information provided on your resume or curriculum vitae and/or employment application. Should there be a problem with this information, you will be contacted. Otherwise, employment will proceed as outlined in this letter.

Your appointment is, of course, subject to applicable rules, regulations, and procedures of Miami University as now in effect and hereafter amended, directives of the President, and actions of the Board of Trustees. Please review carefully, as you will be responsible for meeting the terms and employment requirements as elaborated. The documents included and this letter contain all the terms of our offer of employment. There are no other understandings or agreements, verbal or otherwise, in relation thereto between the University and you except as expressly set forth herein.

This appointment may be renewed consistent with Miami University's policies.

This offer is contingent upon the verification of your right to work in the United States, as shown by your completion of the Form I-9 upon hire and your submission of acceptable documentation (as noted on the Form I-9) verifying your identity and work authorization within three days of starting employment. This offer may be withdrawn if this condition is not satisfied.

A list of acceptable documentation will be provided, and the documentation must be brought on or before your first date of employment listed above to the Office of Human Resources, Roudebush Hall, suite 15.

You will also be required to complete the Ethics Survey and External Service Disclosure on an annual basis.

If these terms are acceptable to you, please indicate your acceptance.
