97.6% of Miami grads employed or continuing their education by the following fall.

Each academic division reported an employment and educational placement rate above 90%:

- College of Arts and Science: 96.7%
- College of Engineering and Computing: 100.0%
- College of Creative Arts: 91.5%
- Farmer School of Business: 99.4%
- College of Education, Health and Society: 97.0%

The majority of employed grads reported salaries between $40,000 and $69,999 in their first year:

- 21.9% earn from $40,000 - $49,999 per year
- 33.1% earn from $50,000 - $59,999 per year
- 13.9% earn from $60,000 - $69,999 per year

Many graduates found employment with companies for which they had previously worked or interned as undergrads.

44.1% of employed new grads had previously worked for their current employer.

Surveyed employers indicate Miami Grads possess the most important skills they think a recent grad should have:

- Self-Motivation
- Strong Communication
- Professionalism
- Interpersonal Skills

Miami University Institutional Research
www.miamioh.edu/oir/Surveys/Post-Graduation

© Miami University 2015