Miami University offers multiple scholarship opportunities for qualified international students for fall 2024. Scholarships are renewable for up to four years, and recipients must enroll full time on the Oxford campus in the academic term for which they earned the award. Scholarships are based on availability and are subject to change.

When applying for admission, students may indicate their interest in the Honors College, which features the Presidential Fellows Program (PFP) and the Prodesse Scholarship. For consideration for PFP or priority consideration for the Honors College, apply by Dec. 1.
