

CULTURAL RESOURCE GUIDE

Office of Transformational and Inclusive Excellence

Introduction

This resource guide has various local, regional, and national resources around various historically minoritized social identities. The purpose of the guide is to provide new community members - students, faculty, and staff - with a quick reference to resources in our community. This guide was reviewed and augmented through various partners across Miami.

This guide is not an exhaustive list of resources in our community or nationally, however it is a starting point. This guide will be updated annually and community members are welcome to share additional resources they feel could benefit the larger community. If you have recommendations of additional resources, please email us directly at OTIE@miamioh.edu for consideration of your suggestions. Inclusion of organizations in this guide does not in any way signal sponsorship or endorsement by Miami University or the Office of Transformational and Inclusive Excellence.

Land Acknowledgement

Miami University is located within the traditional homelands of the Myaamia and Shawnee people, who along with other indigenous groups ceded these lands to the United States in the first Treaty of Greenville in 1795. The Miami people, whose name our university carries, were forcibly removed from these homelands in 1846.

In 1972, a relationship between Miami University and the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma began and evolved into a reciprocal partnership, including the creation of the Myaamia Center at Miami University in 2001. The work of the Myaamia Center serves the Miami Tribe community and is dedicated to the revitalization of Miami language and culture and to restoring that knowledge to the Myaamia people.

Miami University and the Miami Tribe are proud of this work and of the more than 140 Myaamia students who have attended Miami since 1991 through the Myaamia Heritage Award Program.

I. Miami Resources

Resources for All Miami Community Members

Office of Transformational and Inclusive Excellence (TIE)

Mission

To advance Miami University's inclusive excellence and promote a welcoming community for all by providing an integrated, holistic approach to diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) through structures, policies, initiatives, and programming.

Signature Offerings and Resources

History and Heritage Month Programming

Working in close collaboration with faculty, staff, and student partners, TIE provides opportunities for the Miami community to continue our learning and engage in meaningful programming that recognizes, examines, and values historical legacies of a diverse array of identities. There are a myriad of History and Heritage Months celebrated and listed on our website which spotlights past events, upcoming events, and resources for continued education.

Trainings and Workshops

A webpage dedicated to all of the Trainings and Workshops being offered through TIE and across Miami University.

Across the Divide Conference

The Across the Divide Conference is the premier conference for faculty, staff, and students at Miami University to invest in conversations about inclusive excellence, with a goal to promote a deeper community understanding of the key issues related to inclusion, best practices, research, and community building to further the institution's core values.

Educational Resources

Launched in Spring 2022, the Educational Resources website has readings, videos, and books recommendations for a myriad of topics.

Diversity Dashboard and Annual Report

In an effort to be transparent and open about the data at Miami University, you can visit the Data, Reports, and Demographics webpage to find a wide array of data about the institution and our Annual Report.

Office of Equity and Equal Opportunity (OEEO)

Mission

The mission of the Office of Equity and Equal Opportunity (OEEO) is to promote fairness and justice, ensure that each member of the Miami University community is and feels included, and foster a diverse and welcoming environment that is equally accessible for all who live, learn, work and participate in activities at Miami University.

OEEO Services

OEEO provides the following services to the University faculty, staff, students, and visitors to the University:

- Information, consultation, training, resources to the Miami community with regard to discrimination and harassment prevention, affirmative action, equal opportunity, and inclusion;
- Individual consultation to Miami's managers, supervisors, staff, faculty, students, and administrators on the subjects listed above;
- A mechanism for investigating reports of harassment and discrimination;
- The oversight of and support for the University's compliance with federal and state laws in the areas of equal opportunity, affirmative action, harassment, and discrimination.

Reporting Incidents

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex-based discrimination in educational programs and activities receiving federal financial assistance. Sex discrimination includes sexual harassment and sexual violence. Title IX applies to all public and private educational institutions receiving federal financial assistance.

Resources for Employees

Faculty and Staff Affinity Associations

Asian / Asian-American Faculty and Staff Association (AAA-FSA)

The mission of the Asian/Asian American Faculty Staff Association is to bring together Asian and Asian American faculty and staff, and serve as a supportive community for Asian and Asian American employees and students. The Asian/Asian American Faculty Staff Association is currently building traction with the community and is seeking to provide opportunities for individuals to connect in a more casual atmosphere and then use that leverage to continue the growth and momentum of the group. If you are looking to make an impact and be a leader, this is the group for faculty and staff to join!

The Association of Black Faculty and Staff (ABFAS)

The Association of Black Faculty and Staff stands for diversity, equality, solidarity, and change for campus at large, students, and the Oxford community. As an organization, they will engage and participate in any efforts that are meant to educate and provide clarity of ideas of ending racism and discrimination. The Association of Black Faculty and Staff serves as a safe place for African-American or Black individuals to come together and meet. If something arises on campus that impacts the community, they gather together to discuss and hash out solutions in a safe space.

Association of Latinx Faculty and Staff (ALFAS)

The primary goal of the Association of Latinx Faculty and Staff primary is to support and raise awareness about the Latinx faculty and staff. They aim to build networks between departments and units, faculty and students, and Miami university and the community at large. The group also strives to raise the visibility of the Latin American Studies Program and the nearby Latinx community. This organization has been formed by employees of Miami University (Hamilton, Middletown, and Oxford campuses) to foster Latinx, Latin American and Caribbean, and Ibero, Luso-American representation, improve work conditions, and enrich the social and cultural environment for all Miami faculty, staff, and students.

International Faculty and Staff Association at Miami University (IFSAM)

The goal of the International Faculty and Staff Association at Miami is to support and connect international faculty and staff while helping each other thrive in their specific roles on campus. This is accomplished through connecting with colleagues from diverse cultural, ethnic, racial, linguistic, and educational backgrounds, and broadening perspectives, welcoming diversity, and experiencing inclusion at Miami. The group also seeks to listen, understand, and identify the needs of international faculty/staff, address the concerns and needs of the university, provide relevant resources as needed, and help international faculty/staff.

Queer Faculty and Staff Association (QTFSA)

The goal of QTFSA is to create space for the LGBTQIA+ community on campus and advocate for queer and trans individuals needs. The group is currently working on establishing and maintaining a larger group to allow for more capacity moving forward. The group is looking to host more events moving forward to connect with more folks on campus and provide more networking opportunities.

Resources for Students

Center for Student Diversity and Inclusion (CSDI)

Mission

In support of Miami University's mission, the Center for Student Diversity and Inclusion actively creates an inclusive, welcoming, and affirming environment by providing direct services, support, and resources to students. We foster holistic development through transformational learning opportunities, one on one mentorship, and programs that empower students to explore and celebrate their identity, engage in intercultural dialogue, and build leadership skills. The center also collaborates with campus partners to cultivate cultural awareness and diversity competency through education. We advocate for equity in order for all identities to learn, grow, and succeed.

Miller Center for Student Disability Services (SDS)

Mission

As one of 14 departments in the Division of Student Life, the Miller Center for Student Disability Services (SDS) coordinates accommodations, auxiliary aids, support services and resources for over 2500 students on Miami's Oxford and Regional campuses. SDS supports Miami's commitment to diversity and inclusion and promotes student access to an equitable college experience. Services are coordinated in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

We serve a diverse group of students including those with physical, vision, hearing, psychiatric, medical, neurological, learning, and cognitive disabilities, as well as autism spectrum and ADHD. We also coordinate temporary accommodations for students who experience significant injury or illness.

To receive services, students should:

- Self-disclose disability and apply for services.
- Provide verifying documentation.
- Meet with access coordinator to determine accommodation plans.
- Submit accommodation requests according to university procedure and self-advocate regarding needs.

Signature Offerings and Resources

Accommodations and Services

Student Disability Services (SDS) coordinates a wide range of accommodations and services to facilitate student success inside and outside of the classroom. Extended testing time, notetaking accommodations and housing/dining accommodations are just a few examples of commonly requested accommodations. Reasonable accommodations are identified based upon student need and are determined during an access consultation with SDS.

Faculty Tools

Thank you for your commitment to students with disabilities at Miami University. This section will provide you with information and resources to support the needs of students with disabilities. Here you will find information regarding Student Disability Services (SDS) procedures and best practices for the accommodation and inclusion of Miami University students with disabilities. SDS looks forward to working with you to create a welcoming and accessible classroom and campus environment.

Resources

Miami provides a variety of resources and learning support services to support students with disabilities. SDS partners closely with Rinella Learning Center and also provides assistance with voter registration for students with disabilities. Students can also get involved with the Students with Disabilities Advisory Council, an organization that focuses on the interests of Miami students with disabilities.

Myaamia Center

Mission

The Center, a Miami Tribe of Oklahoma initiative located within an academic setting, serves the needs of the Myaamia people, Miami University, and partner communities through research, education, and outreach that promote Myaamia language, culture, knowledge, and values.

The Myaamia Center has two main purposes:

- To conduct in-depth research to assist tribal educational initiatives aimed at the preservation of language and culture. This research is used to create a wide range of educational models and materials for community language and cultural programs.
- To expose undergraduate and graduate students at Miami University to tribal efforts in language and cultural revitalization. Student experiences are gained through a wide range of activities, including visits to Oklahoma, direct involvement in research initiatives, class visitations by Center staff, and access to Miami Tribe language and cultural resources.

The Myaamia Center is directly supported by the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma and Miami University. Anyone committed to helping perpetuate Miami language and culture for future generations is welcome to participate. Contact our office to get involved.

Signature Offerings and Resources

Research

The Myaamia Center's offices explore research on a breadth of topics, from language and education to cultural ecology. We present our research regularly at events such as the Myaamiaki Conference. We also make our research available to members of the Miami Tribe community and the public, in many cases as free downloads.

Programs and Workshops

Each year, Myaamia Center staff lead, participate in, and partner with other organizations on numerous events that relate to our goals of conducting in-depth language and culture revitalization research. These events reflect both our research interests and the wide range of educational models and materials we help to create for community language and cultural programs.

International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS)

Mission

International Student & Scholar Services (ISSS) leads efforts to orient, support, and assist the students and scholars who call Miami home.

Signature Offerings and Resources

Orientation and Transition Services

ISSS welcomes international students to campus with a comprehensive orientation program that consists of information sessions, activities and small group discussions designed to ensure that students' academic and personal needs are met and that immigration and health requirements are fulfilled.

Immigration Advising and Reporting

In addition to processing visa documents and updating government records, ISSS advisors assist students and scholars with maintaining legal status in the U.S. and obtaining benefits such as work authorization.

Academic Success

ISSS proactively monitors the academic success of international students and reaches out to those students experiencing academic difficulty to provide information on university policies, procedures, and campus resources.

Global Friendship Programs

The Global Friendship Program encourages the Miami University and Oxford communities to connect with people from all over the world to develop new perspectives in the spirit of fellowship and appreciation for cultural difference.

- Global Buddies connects domestic and international students.
- Global Neighbors connects international students with Oxford community members and Miami faculty/staff.
- Global Friendship Day is a pre-semester program for first-year international and domestic students to learn from one another and share experiences focused on common interests and differing perspectives.

International Peer Orientation Leader (iPOL)

International Peer Orientation Leaders (iPOLs) are undergraduate or graduate students who assist ISSS with welcoming new international students to Miami University. iPOLs play an integral role in shaping a positive orientation experience for new international students and preparing them to achieve success at Miami University.

International Student Center

The mission of the center is to expand support for international students, providing orientation, resources, and advocacy. Working to co-create opportunities of exploration, discovery, reflection and action for the international community through collaborative co-curricular initiatives, the International Student Center is committed to advance campus internationalization and build a more inclusive global community for those who call Miami, Oxford, and the surrounding areas home.

The Ohio History Connection, formerly the Ohio Historical Society, is a statewide history organization with the mission to spark discovery of Ohio's stories. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization chartered in 1885, the Ohio History Connection carries out history services for Ohio and its citizens focused on preserving and sharing the state's history. This includes housing the state historic preservation office, the official state archives, local history office and managing more than 50 sites and museums across Ohio. The Ohio History Connection works closely with local, national and international partners to advance Ohio history. For more information on programs and events, visit our events calendar.

Queer Behavior (website)

QB likes to have fun and build community. We reject the notion that the queer community of Central Ohio must exist in its current fragmented form, isolated from the ideas, beliefs and stories that we have in common. To lessen our isolation we strive to create fun, interesting, and educational programming for any and all who wish to participate. We'll dance, bike, cook, stretch, watch, read, talk, sip and do whatever else sounds fun while keeping an eye out for those special moments that inspire conversation, create connections and cultivate friendships across cultures, ages, genders and any other lines that are used to separate us. Check us out, participate, share us with your friends or share your ideas about what we can do...and oh, yes, there will be glitter.

National

Mental Health Resources for Black, Indigenous and People of Color - BIPOC (website)

In addition to COVID-19, recent events have brought heightened attention to the specific stressors faced by Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC) communities, who may be experiencing heightened fear, anger and grief at this time. Consistent with the Guide's mission to provide timely mental health resources, we highlight a range of resources that may be useful to BIPOC-identifying individuals seeking support for mental health concerns and/or coping with race-related stressors, whether current and/or historical, as well as those hoping to share available resources to their patients. Mass General Psychiatry is not affiliated with, nor does it directly endorse, any non-MGH organizations listed here. This list is intended only to share resources currently available in the broader community.

55 Mental Health Resources for People of Color (website)

Mental illness does not discriminate - nearly 20% of U.S. adults experience a mental illness each year, regardless of race or ethnicity. And while it's clear that mental health is a crosscutting issue that affects all communities, providing effective services for people of color requires acknowledging and understanding their different lived realities.

In this piece, OnlineMSWPrograms.com collected resources that have been tailored to the mental health needs of various racial and ethnic groups.

Inclusive Therapists (website)

Seeking counseling or therapy can be a vulnerable process. To that, add the challenges that people with marginalized identities face such as neglect, prejudice, silencing, micro-aggressions, and language or financial barriers. Getting the right help can become an overwhelming task. Finding a therapist should not feel like a gamble. All people with all abilities in all bodies deserve equal access to identity affirming, culturally responsive care. We aim to make this process simpler and safer. We center the needs of Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) and the 2SLGBTQIA+ community. We amplify the voices and expressions of Neurodivergent and Disabled communities.

Indian Health Services (website)

The Indian Health Service, an agency within the Department of Health and Human Services , is responsible for providing federal health services to American Indians and Alaska Natives. The provision of health services to members of federally-recognized tribes grew out of the special government-to-government relationship between the federal government and Indian tribes. This relationship, established in 1787, is based on Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution, and has been given form and substance by numerous treaties, laws, Supreme Court decisions, and Executive Orders. The IHS is the principal federal health care provider and health advocate for Indian people, and its goal is to raise their health status to the highest possible level. The IHS provides a comprehensive health service delivery system for approximately 2.6 million American Indians and Alaska Natives who belong to 574 federally recognized tribes in 37 states.

Mental Health for Immigrants: Taking Care of Yourself and Loved Ones (website)

There is a tremendous amount of uncertainty in today's immigration enforcement environment. Not knowing what you can expect for your future, or the futures of your family and friends, is stressful. Even as you may be experiencing anxiety, you can simultaneously be connecting to community or family members in ways that produce resiliency and joy. It is important to recognize that joy and love can coexist with stress and anxiety, and all of these feelings are valid. The information provided here gives tips for managing the emotional and spiritual well-being of yourself and others.
